

This is one of the best laws, and should be continued for the future, the calls have stoped and it is a pleasure. Do not let a few change this, the FCC is there to protect the majority and the majority wants a peaceful time at home without all the calls at night, and on the weekends.